

We will start with the second movement of the Mozart. We will focus on this for much of the time and talk about following a conductor and listening to each other in this situation.

We will then come back to the first movement and work on the second half of the first movement, specifically the soft passages

If there is time we will look at the third movement